WESTERLY WINS FROM STONINGTON

Now Leads in League Standing—Edward Church Falls Through Railway Bridge—Vernon Missionaries After Converts—Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John Senior.

At Stonington, Saturday afternoon, in the presence of nearly one thousand games from Stonington and took the baseball enthusiasts Westerly won two lead in the contest for the championship of the Rhode Island-Connecticut league, with chances good for landing the pennant. Up to Saturday, Stonington held the lead by one game. Now the standing is reversed and in favor of Westerly. The crowd was about equally divided, as many went to the home team to cheer the home team to victory. In addition to the strong team that has represented Westerly for the past month, there was an additional pair who did much toward the winning. They were Eddie Ayers of Providence, the Hope high school pitcher, and one of the crack players of the Inter-City Providence league, and Paddy Sullivan of New London, a star player, who did some fine work at third base.

The first game was practically won in the very first inning when, with two men on bases, Ayers batted the ball over the fence and two runs were scored. In the third inning another tally was made for Westerly. Then Rhodes, who had been in the pitcher's box against Ayers, was taken out and Bowers went in. There was no more scoring for Westerly and Stonington squeaked in a run. Then it was shut out after shut out to the end of the game, the score standing 3 to 1 in favor of Westerly.

The second game was started with Glennon in the box for Westerly and

WOOD OF COMMERCIAL IMPORTANCE

Lieut.-Gov. Arthur W. Jennings entertained the state senators and other politicians at the Pomham club Friday afternoon, at which several five-minute speeches were made. Senator Louis W. Arnold of Westerly explained why he broke from the party ranks in the last session and favored vote power for the governor. He said: "I want to vindicate myself. I do believe in a majority vote, but not a three-fifths veto. I think a majority vote is also and sufficient. The time might come when a three-fifths veto would work to the disadvantage of the state and the republican party."

John Carey was before Judge Albert R. Stillman of the Stonington court, and as a result he is now serving a sentence of 6 months in the county jail at New London. Carey was charged with defacing the residence of Col. Thomas D. Sheffield, in Liberty street, Pawcatuck, which consisted in the breaking of a pane of glass while the members of the household were absent.

The taking of testimony has commenced in the court martial proceedings against Capt. Walter D. Harrington, captain of Company D, First Rhode Island, and recently range officer in charge of the range at Rumford. He is accused of irregularities at the range and with permitting his own company to win the governor's trophy when it was plainly understood that his company was not to compete for the trophy and that he himself was not to compete in individual contests. It was upon these conditions that he was appointed range officer; still, his company was awarded the trophy and he competed for individual honors. It is also claimed that he used men in the match who were not at the time members of his company.

William H. Singer, who died at the Watch Hill house from the effects of injuries received in an automobile accident on the Post road, near Westerly, left an estate of more than a million dollars, although year ago he divided sixteen millions between his four children, when he had premonition that he was to die from accident.

The Pittsburg Association for the Improvement of the Poor gets $10,000, the Newsboys' home $10,000, the Church home $5,000, and the Allegheny General Hospital $20,000.

White Rock took two games from Carolina at White Rock, Saturday afternoon, without much effort, although it was rather close in the first game. The second game was a shoo-in and was without interest. The score:
